Mexico And Vicinity News And Comment

Mrs. Considine, Poultry Raiser—
Hunting Party Capture Ourangutang—Women Making Fireless Cookers.

Mexico, Mo., Oct. 21.—Did you turn your clock back Saturday? You can sleep one hour later in the morning and get up no later.

Dr. J. G. Carr of Martinsburg died in the Mexico Hospital of pneumonia following an attack of influenza. The wife and two sons survive him. Funeral service was held at Martinsburg and the body returned to Mexico, burial in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Joe Considine at Thompson knows how to raise chickens. She sold 1,500 pounds of poultry in Mexico one day last week.

Luther Spotswood and Joseph Howdeshell left two or three days ago for Camp Bowie, Texas, for army training.

Miss Laura McShey, 17 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McShey of Mexico, who had been a waitress at the Military Academy, died of influenza last week. The body was shipped to Hawk Point for burial.

Henry Youngblood, down near Martinsburg, was here last week. Henry says he is not as part as he used to be. But he keeps a-kicking and going. He has been gathering his corn. One field made 28 bushels to the acre, but his other corn will not make over 15 bushels to the acre. He sorts his seed corn for next season as he goes thru the field.

Here, Mexico and Audrain county folks, in a suggestion or two: In 11 communities in one county in Oregon the women are making homemade driers, homemade fireless cookers, and homemade iceless refrigerators under the direction of the home demonstration agent. In connection with this project one woman found that an investment of 50 cents in a dish drainer and a wire dishcloth for pots and pans saved her ten minutes of the time required to do the dishes after each meal, or 30 minutes a day. In a year she figured this time, if accumulated, would give two weeks of 12 hours a day, leisure. Was the investment worth while?

Miss Anna McMurtry of Powell Ford came home from Deepwater, Mo., where she is teaching, her school ordered closed for a few days on account of the influenza.

F. B. Cook and son, Harry, north of Mexico, have been down in the Ozark hills for some time.

Seed Tick Hunting Society, southeast of Mexico, reports a great outing one night recently with Dewey Franklin and Miss Oceola Clapper as leaders. After a chase, then getting lost and then finding themselves, the hounds treed an "ourangutang." Clark Bomar carried a hatchet and felled the tree and the animal was captured. Captains were changed and Alex Watts and Miss Florence Kirkpatrick, it is reported, became the leaders. Roll was called and everybody reported but a spotted hound and a cur. "A search will be continued and a reward pending," the reward to be paid from the sale of the fur from the ourangutang. Everybody had lots of fun.

Beaver Dam School closed for a time on account of the "flu."

Jim Sims sold a number of mules to Sid Gilmore at $200 per head.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair, south of Mexico, spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Crockett of Powell Ford vicinity.
